METO PRICING GUNS – THE RIGHT CHOICE, EVERYWHERE, EVERY TIME

When it comes to prices, numbering or any other declaration of alphanumeric data, customers put their trust in our Meto products. The original article, since 1959.

Wherever you use your Meto, it's a trusty and dependable companion.

Are things heating up in your kitchen?

If so, you need tools that fit comfortably in the hand, enable you to work quickly, and last many years – just like your knives. Meto pricing guns fit the bill perfectly: Foods can be labeled quickly and reliably, and the pricing gun's ergonomics are a boon for stressed wrists.

Your florist's business: a paradise for all that is beautiful.

Enchanting flowers, arranged with taste and creativity. The right vases, figurines, a wealth of small accessories that make life more beautiful. To maintain the impression, the price labels must also be just right, and of high quality. In particular, consider the importance of consistently high print quality, which ensures a harmonious overall appearance and makes your wares look elegant and stylish.

Nothing but the best

You sell only what you would be willing to use yourself. You attach importance to quality. This also applies to the "tools of the trade" that you make use of every day. So why compromise with your pricing gun? Put your trust in the original item – your Meto.

METO BASIC AND METO CLASSIC

Whichever model you choose, it will fully satisfy your requirements. Our Basic model range is your easy route into the world of product labeling: label your products precisely with the most important information. For more complex content, such as batch numbers or 3-line printing, our Classic range offers the models of choice.

TRUST THE ORIGINAL – TRUST YOUR METO

On the safe side: high-quality materials and regular quality checks make your Meto robust and durable, with up to a three-year warranty.

No more pain: The innovative, ergonomic weight distribution of the printer mechanism relieves stress on the wrist.

Unpack and you're good to go: the set includes the pricing gun with the label and ink rolls already inserted.

Almost magical: the print quality is consistently high, regardless of how much pressure you apply when using the tool.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF AN EXTRA YEAR'S GUARANTEE

Something you can rely on. By purchasing a Meto product, you have chosen for a first-class tool. We are so confident in our products that we grant you up to three years' guarantee when you register at www.meto.com/hls.

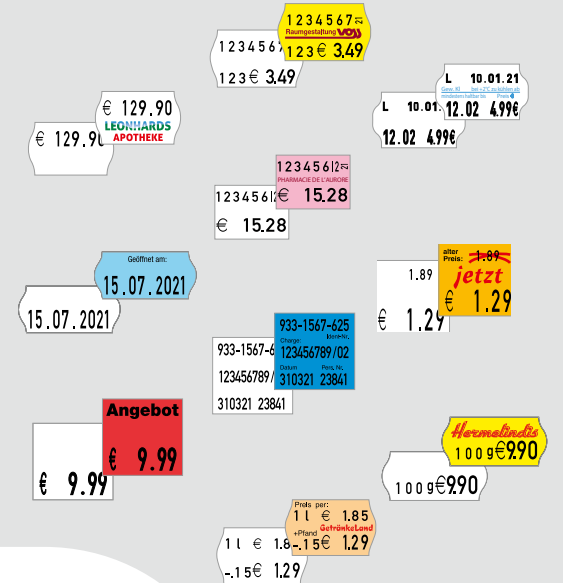

Child's play: our proven pressure-point mechanism and the high indexing rate ensure precise and constant print quality.

ENABLE THE LABEL! ... WITH METO!

Attention to detail pays off. To provide you with exactly the right label for your application, we offer a wide range of shapes, sizes and colors.

Our solutions also include removable labels. The advantage of these labels for our customers is that they can be removed easily, for example from glass or other smooth surfaces, without the annoyance of having to be rubbed or scraped off the surface.

Another major advantage: You can customize Meto labels with ease with your own logo. The result: a harmonized and professional overall image.
